CHAPTER I GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 1. – (1) The "Mihai Viteazul" National Intelligence Academy (hereinafter referred to as ANIMV) organizes admission to bachelor's degree programs for the number of places approved by the Romanian Intelligence Service (SRI) on behalf of public authorities with responsibilities within the national defense, public order, and national security system (hereinafter referred to as beneficiary institutions), for the following study programs:

- Intelligence Operations (Faculty of Intelligence);
- Security and Intelligence Studies (Faculty of Intelligence Studies).

(2) Admission shall be organized in accordance with this Methodology, which is structured in line with the general criteria governing admission to bachelor's degree programs established by the Ministry of Education and Research and supplemented by the specific criteria adopted by the ANIMV University Senate.

Art. 2. – (1) Through its bachelor's degree programs, ANIMV provides the initial education and training of future military officers and public officials with special status, prepared to meet the personnel needs of the Romanian Intelligence Service and the beneficiary institutions.

(2) A person admitted to a bachelor's degree program at ANIMV, or admitted to a civilian higher education institution for the purpose of education and training to meet the personnel requirements of the Romanian Intelligence Service or other institutions with responsibilities in the fields of defense, intelligence, public order, and national security, shall have the status of a military student throughout the entire period of enrollment in the respective program, from enrolment until the final graduation examination or expulsion, except during any officially approved periods of interruption of studies.

Art. 3. – (1) Admission to bachelor's degree programs shall be organized within the field of study "Military Sciences, Intelligence, and Public Order", for the accredited or provisionally authorized study programs offered by ANIMV, as referred to in Art. 1 para. (1) of this Methodology.

(2) The admission competition for bachelor's degree studies shall be organized in a single admission session.

(3) The admission examination shall be conducted in Romanian, in accordance with the provisions of Art. 24 para. (8) of Higher Education Law No. 199/2023, as subsequently amended and supplemented.

(4) The educational offer, the admission schedule, the organization of the admission competition, the admission tests and their format, as well as the admission requirements and the documents required for application, shall be established in accordance with the applicable legal provisions and shall be made public by posting them at ANIMV's headquarters and by publication on the ANIMV website (www.animv.ro) and on the Romanian Intelligence Service website (www.sri.ro).

(5) A candidate may be admitted and enrolled simultaneously in no more than two study programs (one study program at ANIMV and one short-cycle, bachelor's, master's, or doctoral study program at another university).

(6) The bachelor's degree programs organized by ANIMV are offered as full-time study programs and are fully funded from the state budget, in accordance with the provisions of Art. 35 para. (8) of Higher Education Law No. 199/2023, as subsequently amended and supplemented.

CHAPTER II REGISTRATION OF CANDIDATES

Art. 4. – (1) Admission to ANIMV requires candidates to undergo, as a mandatory preliminary step, the selection process conducted by the beneficiary institution for which ANIMV provides training and for which the candidate chooses to apply.

(2) Candidates applying for admission to ANIMV must cumulatively meet the following conditions:

a) they are high school graduates holding a baccalaureate diploma, regardless of the year of graduation, or they submit a certificate confirming that they are taking the baccalaureate examination during the June 2026 session;

b) they obtained a minimum conduct grade of 8.00 (eight) throughout their entire high school education;

c) they are Romanian citizens and have permanent domicile in Romania, in accordance with the provisions of Art. 35 para. (4) of Higher Education Law No. 199/2023, as subsequently amended and supplemented;

d) they acknowledge and accept that educational activities are conducted under a military residential (barracks) regime, with permission to leave the campus for the city during weekdays between 16:00-22:00, depending on the schedule of educational activities and, where applicable, any additional restrictions imposed by the governmental authorities;

e) they accept that they may leave the university campus to travel home only during specifically approved periods;

f) they have completed the selection process conducted by the beneficiary institution within the national defense, public order, and national security system for whose places they have chosen to compete, and have been declared FIT to participate in the admission competition;

g) they express their agreement that, upon completion of the bachelor's degree program at ANIMV, they will perform duties as intelligence officers anywhere within the national territory, according to the interests and operational needs of the institution by which they were selected and educated, in accordance with the commitment signed with that institution;

h) they accept that, should they be declared ADMITTED, the exercise of certain civil rights and freedoms may be prohibited or restricted, in accordance with the applicable legislation;

i) they consent to checks regarding their activities and conduct, as well as to the security vetting procedures provided for in Government Decision No. 585/2002 approving the National Standards for the Protection of Classified Information in Romania, as subsequently amended and supplemented, in order to determine any incompatibilities concerning access to classified information; they further acknowledge that they shall be enrolled only under the conditions laid down in Art. 42 para. (3) of this Methodology;

j) where candidates have previously attended a similar program of education financed from the state budget, pursuant to Art. 14 para. (2) of Order of the Minister of Education No. 3693/2024, they shall reimburse the cost of the educational services previously financed from the state budget. The recovery of these costs shall be carried out by the public higher education institution that provided the education. Upon enrolment at ANIMV, candidates shall submit proof that they have either paid the educational costs in full or are repaying them by instalments.

(3) No derogations shall be granted from the registration requirements set forth in para. (2).

Art. 5. – (1) The registration of candidates for the admission contest is done online, by completing a standard application (Annex 1) addressed to the commander (rector) of ANIMV. The form shall be downloaded from the ANIMV website, completed, scanned in .pdf format and transmitted between 03.06 - 03.07.2026 as follows:

(2) Persons appointed to the committees shall submit a written declaration on their own responsibility confirming that they are not in any of the situations referred to in paragraph (1).

(3) If, after the committees have been established, it is found that any committee includes persons belonging to the categories referred to in paragraph (1), appropriate measures shall be taken to replace those persons.

(4) Concealing or deliberately withholding the truth regarding the situations referred to in paragraph (1) shall result in the disciplinary sanctioning of the persons responsible.

(5) Disciplinary measures shall also be taken against persons who, by means of false declarations, evade their duties relating to the organization of the admission competition.

Art. 23. – Members of the committees established for the organization of the admission process who fail to comply with this Methodology or who, through their actions, prejudice the proper organization and conduct of the admission competition, disclose the contents of confidential admission documents, violate the rules governing the assessment of the admission examinations, or incorrectly record examination results shall be subject to disciplinary or, where appropriate, criminal liability, in accordance with the legislation in force.

Art. 24. – Before the commencement of the admission examinations, the members of the committees shall be convened at the ANIMV headquarters in order to establish and review the organizational arrangements and the procedures governing the actual conduct of the admission examinations.

CHAPTER IV

CONDUCT OF THE ADMISSION COMPETITION, ADMISSION EXAMINATIONS, AND CALCULATION OF THE ADMISSION AVERAGE

Art. 25. – (1) All information regarding the admission examinations, as well as the complete calendar for the admission competition (Annex 3), shall be made public on the ANIMV website, www.animv.ro, and shall be posted on the external notice board of ANIMV six months before the commencement of the admission competition.

(2) The grading guideline shall be displayed on the external notice board of ANIMV during the admission competition.

Art. 26. – (1) The admission examinations shall be as follows:

- i. for the Intelligence Operations specialization:
 - A. Examination I: General Knowledge Test

- The General Knowledge Test shall be administered in the form of a multiple-choice examination with a duration of 180 minutes.
- The purpose of the General Knowledge Test is to assess knowledge in the following subjects:
 - a) Romanian Language and Literature – 50% weighting;
 - b) Psychology – 10% weighting
 - c) History – 10% weighting;
 - d) Logic – 10% weighting;
 - e) Economics – 10% weighting;
 - f) Mathematics – 10% weighting.
- The examination items shall be prepared on the basis of the school curricula applicable to the 2025–2026 National Baccalaureate Examination. For Romanian Language and Literature, the applicable curriculum shall be that for the theoretical stream (science profile), the technological stream, and the vocational stream (with the exception of the pedagogical profile). For Mathematics, the applicable curriculum shall be M_Pedagogic for the vocational stream, pedagogical profile, teacher/educator specialization³.
- Each examination item shall have four possible answer options, only one of which is correct.

(2) Preparation of the Admission Examination Questions

a) A separate committee shall be established for each examination, responsible for generating the examination questions;

b) On the days scheduled for the written examinations (Examination I / Examination II), the subcommittee responsible for drafting the questions for the respective examination shall prepare the examination questions;

c) During the preparation of the examination questions, only registered sheets of paper provided and distributed by the secretaries of the specialization committees may be used for draft work;

d) In preparing the examination questions, the following requirements shall be observed:

1) they shall be strictly consistent with the syllabus, textbooks, and school curricula applicable to the admission competition;

2) they shall be clearly formulated;

3) they shall ensure balanced coverage of the subject matter studied;

4) they shall have a level of complexity consistent with the content of the educational curricula, syllabus, and textbooks, so that they can be completed within the allotted examination time.

e) Upon completion of the preparation process, three versions of the examination questions shall be printed for each examination, that shall undergo a final verification by the members of the subcommittee that prepared them.

f) After verification of the examination questions, the members of the question drafting subcommittee shall prepare an official report (Annex 4) on the preparation of the questions and the correctness of the formulated questions, and version shall then be placed in a separate envelope indicating the version contained therein.

g) Subsequently, in the presence of the members of the Admission Committee for the respective specialization, the Chair of the Committee shall randomly draw one envelope, which shall contain the examination version to be used.

h) The remaining two versions shall be handed over to the Secretary of the Central Admission Committee and shall become part of the admission records.

i) Upon completion of the preparation of the examination papers, all draft materials, source materials, and technical devices used shall be handed over, against signature in an official report, to the Secretary of the Admission Committee for the respective specialization and shall be retained until the conclusion of the admission competition.

⁶ Article 38 of Order of the Minister of Education No. 3693/2024 provides that the minimum overall admission average for bachelor's degree studies may not be lower than 5.00 (five) or the equivalent minimum number of points

j) Throughout the preparation of the examination questions, the persons involved in this activity shall not leave the designated secure area and shall have no contact whatsoever with outside persons.

k) All participants, whether academic staff or technical personnel, shall be required to maintain the confidentiality of the examination questions. Failure to do so shall result in the legal consequences according to applicable laws and military regulations.

(3) Multiplication of the Examination Papers

a) The multiplication of the written examination papers shall take place in a specially designated restricted access area⁷.

b) After multiplication, the examination papers shall be placed in sealed envelopes, marked with the destination examination room and the corresponding examination.

c) Throughout the multiplication process, the personnel involved shall not leave the designated secure area and have no contact whatsoever with outside persons.

d) Upon completion of the multiplication process, the person designated as responsible for this activity, together with the other participants, shall prepare an official report (Annex 5) specifying the number of examination papers multiplied for each examination; the number of defective copies; the starting and ending times of the activity and the persons participating in the activity.

e) The participants involved in these activities shall remain within the specially designated secure area until the examination papers have been distributed and shall be required to maintain the confidentiality of the examination questions. Failure to do so shall result in the legal consequences according to applicable laws and military regulations.

At 09:00, the members of the Admission Committee for the respective specialization shall report to collect the examination papers and distribute them to the examination rooms.

(4) Timetable for the Conduct of the Admission Examinations:

a) 8⁰⁰ – 8³⁰ - Candidates' access to the ANIMV premises.

b) 8³⁰ – 9¹⁵ - Candidates' access to the examination rooms and verification of their identification documents.

c) 9¹⁵ – 09³⁰ - Distribution of sealed envelopes containing the examination papers by representatives of the Admission Committee for the respective specialization.

d) 9³⁰ – 12³⁰ - Conduct of the examination.

e) 10³⁰ - Publication, outside the examination premises, of the examination questions and the grading guidelines for each examination.

f) 12³⁰ – 13⁰⁰ - Submission of the examination papers to the Written Examination Papers Handling Committee.

g) Starting with 14⁰⁰ - Grading of the examination papers.

(5) Examination Supervision Subcommittee:

a) Beginning at 8⁰⁰, under the supervision of the Secretary of the Central Admission Committee and a member of the Technical Secretariat, the examination room supervisors and invigilators shall be selected by lot.

⁷ If Examination I is conducted using a computerized testing system provided by ANIMV, the examination questions shall be uploaded into the testing environment and shall no longer be physically multiplied.

b) Each examination room supervisor shall receive from the Secretary of the Admission Committee for the respective specialization a folder containing the following:

1) written instructions regarding the duties of the examination room supervisor during the examination (containing the tasks approved by the Chair of the Central Admission Committee, according to the specific nature of the examination);

2) answer sheets for completing the examination;

3) the Examination Room Attendance Register (Annex 7);

4) the Examination Paper Submission Register (Annex 8);

5) the Official Report on the Handover and Receipt of Examination Papers (Annex 6).

(6) Conduct of the Admission Examinations:

a) at 8³⁰, the supervision teams shall proceed to their assigned examination rooms;

b) candidates shall be admitted to the examination room only after their identity has been verified at the entrance by a member of the supervision team;

c) candidates shall not be permitted to bring into the examination room any means of communication, textbooks, notebooks, notes, or any other sources of information;

d) after recording the attendance of candidates, the examination room supervisor shall prepare the attendance statistics and instruct the candidates regarding the conduct of the examination;

e) any candidate who is not present in the examination room at the time when the sealed envelopes containing the examination questionnaires are opened shall, as applicable, be recorded as "ABSENT."

(7) Instructions to Candidates Before the Examination:

a) each candidate shall receive one examination set consisting of one examination questionnaire and one answer sheet;

b) the last pages of the examination questionnaire may be used as draft paper;

c) the identification details on the answer sheet shall be completed and concealed as follows: the candidate shall write, in capital letters, on the section of the answer sheet to be sealed and stamped by a member of the Central Admission Committee: candidate's surname; father's name; candidate's name; and admission examination identification card number;

d) answers shall be written only with a blue ink pen;

e) after the examination papers have been distributed and any questions from candidates have been clarified, the examination duration shall be 180 minutes;

f) if a candidate wishes to change the selected answers, they may request a new answer sheet. The incorrectly completed answer sheet shall be cancelled by the examination room supervisor upon issuance of the new answer sheet. Under the supervisor's supervision, the candidate shall complete all the required identification information in the concealed identification section of the new answer sheet.;

g) corrections made on the answer sheet shall be effected by enclosing the words to be corrected in round brackets and crossing them out with a single line;

h) the answer sheet shall be stamped by a representative of the Central Admission Committee, who shall visit each examination room during the examination;

i) any fraud or attempted fraud identified by the invigilators or reported by candidates (including the possession by a candidate of textbooks, notebooks, notes, electronic communication devices, or similar materials) shall result in the elimination of that candidate from the admission competition;

j) in cases of fraud or attempted fraud, the materials used in committing the offence shall be confiscated, and the candidate shall be escorted by an invigilator to the Secretariat of the Central Admission Committee, where his or her status shall be officially recorded as "eliminated from the competition";

k) upon submitting the answer sheet, candidates shall sign the Examination Paper Submission Register;

l) candidates may leave the examination room only after at least 60 minutes have elapsed from the distribution of the examination questionnaires, provided that they have submitted all examination documents and signed the required attendance records. During the examination, candidates may temporarily leave the examination room only for physiological needs or medical reasons and only if permanently accompanied by an invigilator. The last 5 (five) candidates shall remain in the examination room until the end of the examination. Two of them shall witness the examination room supervisor handing over the answer sheets to the Chair of the Written Examination Papers Handling Committee and shall sign the official report (Annex 6), certifying the integrity and number of the answer sheets delivered and received. The report shall conclude with the statement: "No irregularities were identified during the transport or during the handover and receipt of the examination papers";

m) draft papers, cancelled examination forms, unused examination forms, and examination questionnaires shall be collected in separate files and handed over under the same official report;

n) in emergency situations (fire, earthquake, etc.), candidates shall evacuate the examination room in accordance with the instructions given by the examination room supervisor so as not to cause panic;

o) the examination room supervisor shall be responsible for the conduct of the examination in accordance with this Methodology, for maintaining order and silence during the examination, and for resolving all matters within their competence, requesting assistance from the Central Admission Committee whenever necessary.

(8) Grading of the Examination Papers:

a) for each admission examination, the examination papers shall be graded on the same day on which the examination is held.

b) after receiving the examination papers, the members of the Written Examination Papers Handling Committee shall number them separately for each examination, beginning with no. 1, ensuring that no two examination papers bear the same number.

c) equal sets of examination papers shall then be prepared for each grader, according to the number of graders.

d) the Committee shall attach to each set one grading guideline and one grading results form (Annex 9).

e) the members of each grading team shall receive, against signature, one set of examination papers and one grading results form and shall sign again when returning them.

f) each examination paper shall be graded twice, independently, by two different evaluators, each awarding a separate grade.

g) the grade awarded to the examination paper shall be the arithmetic mean of the two grades, calculated to two decimal places, without rounding.

h) if the Written Examination Papers Handling Committee determines that the difference between the two grades awarded exceeds one point, the examination paper shall be reassessed by two additional evaluators. Upon completion of the reassessment, the grades awarded shall be countersigned by the evaluators, and the Chair of the Committee shall determine the final grade by: eliminating the two extreme grades and calculating the arithmetic mean of the two middle grades, expressed to two decimal places, without rounding. The resulting average shall constitute the final grade.

i) the grade thus determined shall be final.

j) upon completion of the grading process, the Written Examination Papers Handling Committee shall deliver all examination papers relating to the respective specialization to the Secretary of the Admission Committee for that specialization.

(9) Centralization of Results:

a) On the day following the completion of the grading of the second admission examination, the results obtained by the candidates for each examination shall be centralized on the basis of the grading records, without revealing the candidates' identities.

b) After both examinations have been completed and the results centralized, the sealed identification sections of the examination papers shall be opened and the candidates' identities shall be associated with their respective results.

c) Following this procedure, the candidates shall be ranked according to their Admission Average, separately for each beneficiary institution.

Art. 27. – (1) The minimum Admission Average shall not be lower than 5.00 (five) and shall be calculated to two decimal places, without rounding.

(2) The grade obtained in each admission examination shall not be lower than 5.00 (five).

(3) After the results have been entered, ranked, and verified, the Chair of the Admission Committee for the respective specialization and its Secretary shall sign the official report.

(4) Upon completion of the official report, the sets of examination papers shall be retained by the Admission Committee for the respective specialization.

Art. 28. – After all candidates' results have been centralized and the admission competition has been validated, a ranking list shall be prepared for the purpose of publishing the provisional admission results. A separate ranking list shall be drawn up for each beneficiary institution and for each specialization, in descending order of the scores obtained.

PUBLICATION OF THE RESULTS

Art. 29. – (1) The provisional admission results and the final admission results shall be communicated after their validation by the Central Admission Committee.

(2) Following validation, the Central Admission Committee shall order the publication of the provisional results and the final results on the ANIMV website (www.animv.ro) and on the external notice board of ANIMV, simultaneously for both specializations, indicating the exact time of publication.

(3) The publication of the admission competition results shall take place in two stages:

- a) provisional lists – containing the ranking of candidates following the admission examination;
- b) final lists – containing the ranking of candidates after the resolution of appeals, these constituting the final and non-appealable results.

(4) Both the provisional and final lists shall include the identification codes of admitted candidates as well as those of rejected candidates.

Art. 30. – If, after the final lists have been generated, vacancies remain, they may be filled by reallocating candidates initially declared "REJECTED", in descending order of their Admission Average, subject to compliance with the minimum admission average⁸, upon the express request of the beneficiary institution where vacancies remain and based on the written request of the candidates concerned.

CHAPTER VI SUBMISSION AND RESOLUTION OF APPEALS

Art. 31. – Following publication of the provisional results, appeals (Annex 10) may be submitted within 24 hours, explicitly indicating the examination for which the re- evaluation of the written examination paper(s) is requested⁹. Appeals may be submitted either at the ANIMV access control point or electronically, as follows:

- for the Faculty of Intelligence – Intelligence Operations specialization: to the e-mail address: admiterefi2026@animv.ro ;
- for the Faculty of Intelligence Studies – Security and Intelligence Studies specialization, to the e-mail address: admiterefsi2026@animv.ro .

Art. 32. – At the end of the appeal submission period, the Chair of the Central Admission Committee shall collect all appeals and convene the members of the Appeal Resolution Committees.

Art. 33. – The Secretary of the Central Admission Committee shall collect from the Admission Committee for the respective specialization the examination papers subject to appeal, shall seal and stamp the section containing the candidate's identifying information, and shall deliver the papers to the Chairs of the Appeal Resolution Committees.

Art. 34. – (1) Appeals shall be resolved within 48 hours from the expiry of the appeal submission deadline.

⁸ Article 38 of Order of the Minister of Education No. 3693/2024 provides that the minimum overall admission average for bachelor's degree programs may not be lower than 5.00 (five) or the equivalent minimum number of points

(2) The re-grading procedure shall be identical to the initial one.

(3) The grades resulting from the re-grading, carried out by the Appeal Resolution Committee shall be final and not subject to further appeal.

(4) The final results following the resolution of appeals shall be published on the ANIMV website (www.animv.ro) and displayed on the external notice board of ANIMV.

(5) Appeals based on ignorance or misunderstanding of the provisions of this Methodology shall not be admitted.

Art. 35. – Upon completion of the appeal resolution process, the appealed examination papers shall be returned to the Admission Committee for the respective specialization, which shall retain them until the admission results have been validated by the University Senate of ANIMV and the candidates declared ADMITTED have been enrolled.

CHAPTER VII FINAL PROVISIONS

Art. 36. – (1) Following validation of the admission results, the documents relating to the organization and conduct of the admission competition shall be transferred to the secretariat of the competent faculty for filing and retention in accordance with the law.

(2) The written examination papers of candidates declared ADMITTED shall be retained in the student's file throughout the duration of their studies.

(3) The written examination papers of candidates declared REJECTED shall be retained for one year from the date on which the admission results are published, after which they shall be destroyed in accordance with the applicable procedures.

Art. 37. – The ANIMV management shall have jurisdiction to examine any misconduct involving academic staff (markers, examiners, invigilators, or members of the admission committees) during the admission competition.

Art. 38. – ANIMV shall take all necessary measures to ensure the proper conduct of the admission competition, maintain order and discipline within the Academy, prevent fraud, provide medical assistance, regulate access and movement of candidates and personnel involved in the admission process, prepare the necessary facilities, and ensure the operation of the on-site cafeteria.

Art. 39. – During the admission competition, the Chair of the Central Admission Committee may, after consulting the Committee members, order any lawful measures necessary to ensure the proper conduct of the admission competition.

Art. 40. – At least five days before the commencement of the admission competition, the beneficiary institutions shall be informed of the date and time for candidates to report to ANIMV, together with the conditions governing participation in the admission competition, so that this information may be communicated to the candidates.

Art. 41. – The admission competition result reports (Annex 11) shall be transmitted to the beneficiary institutions within 48 hours from the date and time the results are published.

Art. 42. – Candidates declared ADMITTED shall be enrolled in the first year of the first-cycle bachelor's degree program by decision of the Commandant (Rector) of ANIMV.

(2) Pursuant to Article 125(3)(a) and Article 125(4) of Higher Education Law no. 199/2023, , as subsequently amended and supplemented, ANIMV students enrolled in bachelor's degree programs are exempt from registration in the Romanian Unique Student Register (RMUR) / the National Integrated Register of Diplomas and Study Documents (RUNIDAS). Their registration shall instead be carried out in the Special Student Register, maintained by the Romanian Intelligence Service in accordance with the legislation governing the protection of classified information.

(3) Only candidates declared ADMITTED who obtain authorization for access to classified information by 30 September 2026 shall be enrolled in the first year of study.

Art. 43. – Enrolled candidates shall sign a commitment agreement with the beneficiary institution that selected them, undertaking to serve that institution for a specified period.

Art. 44. – Enrolled candidates shall sign a study contract with ANIMV setting out the reciprocal rights and obligations of the parties, including the obligation to reimburse the costs of maintenance and military training incurred during their education, in accordance with Article 34(2) of Higher Education Law No. 199/2023, as subsequently amended and supplemented.

Art. 45. – The files of candidates declared REJECTED shall be returned to the beneficiary institutions that selected them.

Art. 46. – The present information and provisions constitute the official rules governing the organization and conduct of the admission competition to the "Mihai Viteazul" National Intelligence Academy.

Art. 47. – Should the Ministry of Education and Research issue additional provisions concerning the admission competition, these shall be communicated to candidates in due time by publication on the external notice board of ANIMV and on the websites of ANIMV (www.animv.ro) and the Romanian Intelligence Service (www.sri.ro).

Art. 48. – This Methodology repeals the Methodology for the Organization and Conduct of the Admission Competition for Bachelor's Degree Programmes at the "Mihai Viteazul" National Intelligence Academy, No. 149969 of February 28th, 2025.

This Methodology was approved at the meeting of the University Senate of the "Mihai Viteazul" National Intelligence Academy held on March 5th, 2026.
